

FOOD JEOPARDY

www.oxfam.ca/grow

KNOW YOUR GRAINS

GLOBAL NUMBERS

ONLY IN CANADA

WOULD YOU BELIEVE?

FOOD IN SONG

THE GOOD NEWS

100

Of all the cereals __ leads in value and volume of production.

Hunger is the world's number __ health risk.

On average Canadians spend __% of their household budgets on food purchases.

In 2010 the number of cars worldwide exceeded __

"__ For two, walk For two, breath For two now."

At the end of 2010, more than __ Fairtrade certified products were available in Canada.

200

__ requires more water than other cereals and is more labour intensive.

__ % of the world's hungry are women.

Approximately __ million people have trouble putting food on the table.

__ % of US corn goes to engines rather than stomachs.

In Newfoundland, "It's the b'y that catches the __."

Ambitious investment in small-scale agriculture helped Vietnam reduce hunger by __%

300

__ has been the staple food of the major civilizations in Europe, Asia and North Africa for 8,000 years.

__ % of the world's hungry are rural food producers.

Approximately __ % of food bank clients were under 18 years of age.

The largest ethanol plant in Canada consumes more than __ bushels of corn a day.

"Your love is better than __."

Global investments in renewable energy overtook fossil fuel spending for the first time in __.

400

__ is a useful oil and protein source and can be processed into flour, meal or milk.

The world's poorest spend __ % of their household budgets on food purchases.

Over __% of households who turn to a food bank for assistance are families with children.

__ % of all food produced is either lost or wasted.

"Then we would cook __ meal porridge. Of which I'll share with you."

In 2008 Canada agreed __% of its food aid would be spent in poor countries close to the where the need is greatest.

500

__ is heat and drought tolerant. It is an important source of food in Africa, Central America, and South Asia.

Women produce an estimated __% of the food in many developing countries.

In Canada, one in 10 children lives in poverty. For children living in First Nations communities it is one in __.

By 2050 the world's population is expected to reach 9 billion. To feed everyone we will need to grow __% more food.

Women's "lives shall not be sweated from birth until life closes; Give us __, but give us roses."

If women farmers were given the same access to land, credit and support services the number of hungry people could fall by __ million.

FOOD JEOPARDY – ANSWERS

www.oxfam.ca/grow

KNOW YOUR GRAINS

GLOBAL NUMBERS

ONLY IN CANADA

WOULD YOU BELIEVE?

FOOD IN SONG

THE GOOD NEWS

100

Of all the cereals CORN leads in value and volume of production.

Hunger is the world's number 1 health risk.

On average Canadians spend 10 % of their household budgets on Food purchases.

In 2010 the number of cars worldwide exceeded 1 BILLION

"EAT For two, walk For two, breath For two now."

At the end of 2010, more than 1000 Fairtrade certified products were available in Canada.

200

RICE requires more water than other cereals and is more labour intensive.

60 % of the world's hungry are women.

Approximately 2 million people have trouble putting Food on the table.

40 % of US corn goes to engines rather than stomachs.

In Newfoundland, "I's the b'y that catches the FISH."

Ambitious investment in small-scale agriculture helped Vietnam reduce hunger by 50 %

300

WHEAT has been the staple Food of the major civilizations in Europe, Asia and North Africa For 8,000 years.

75 % of the world's hungry are rural Food producers.

Approximately 40 % of Food bank clients were under 18 years of age.

The largest ethanol plant in Canada consumes more than 100,000 bushels of corn a day.

"Your love is better than ICE CREAM." (or CHOCOLATE)

Global investments in renewable energy overtook Fossil Fuel spending For the first time in 2009.

400

SOYBEAN is a useful oil and protein source and can be processed into flour, meal or milk.

The world's poorest spend 80 % of their household budgets on Food purchases.

Over 50 % of households who turn to a Food bank for assistance are Families with children.

33 % of all Food produced is either lost or wasted.

"Then we would cook CORN meal porridge. Of which I'll share with you."

In 2008 Canada agreed 100 % of its Food aid would be spent in poor countries close to the where the need is greatest.

500

SORGHUM is heat and drought tolerant. It is an important source of Food in Africa, Central America, and South Asia.

Women produce an estimated 80 % of the Food in many developing countries.

In Canada, one in 10 children lives in poverty. For children living in First Nations communities it is one in 4.

By 2050 the world's population is expected to reach 9 billion. To feed everyone we will need to grow 70 % more Food.

Women's "lives shall not be sweated from birth until life closes; Give us BREAD, but give us roses."

If women Farmers were given the same access to land, credit and support services the number of hungry people could fall by 150 million.